

Counters/collectors - Most of us would think very little about the money side of the parish. You would be surprised to know just how many people are involved in these important tasks for the running of the parish. We rely on the honesty, integrity and expertise of many people to take up the collections, count them, recount them, bank, record, analyze and acknowledge payments.