

Marriage preparation - It's sad that currently we are down to only 2 couples who are available to present the FOCCUS program to engaged couples. From that point of view we are fortunate that we have had so few weddings here this year. It is an invaluable part of a couple's preparation for marriage – spending time discussing the hopes and dreams, concerns and possibilities of married life with people who had the experience of marriage. It has been part of this parish's tradition to offer this service locally, and I hope that more couples would consider this ministry to our young people – the future of our church.
