

RCIA has already been mentioned above. Most sincere thanks to all who have helped this to run so smoothly. And - an urgent plea to other parishioners to consider involvement in the coming year. This is the way we fulfil our mission to go out to the world and spread the gospel. We need many more people to be involved.